

Brain POP - Static Electricity

Name _____

1. Static electricity is the imbalance between _____ and _____. It is caused by the movement of _____. Static electricity builds up when _____.
2. Every atom has three parts. They are _____ with a _____ charge, _____ with a _____ charge and _____ with a _____ charge.
3. _____ are materials that don't hold tight to their electrons and electrons have an easy time moving through them. An example is _____.
4. _____ are material that hold tight to their electrons and don't allow them to move in and out. An example is _____.
5. _____, _____ and _____ are the three sounds for static.
6. Ben Franklin conducted _____ experiments and invented the _____.

Challenge: Print out the activity page for static electricity and complete. Staple it to this page.